

Please cancel plans to change rules that restrict consolidation of media ownership in the USA. Our democracy depends on a free, independent and diversified press that is not easily manipulated and dominated by government or other special interests. I am a US citizen from Spokane, Washington, living with my family in Thailand.